

MAKING COMMENTS AND COMPLAINTS:

A guide for patient's whose care is being funded by the NHS

Introduction

Regent's Park Healthcare (RPH) is committed to delivering safe, high-quality, cost-effective healthcare. We will do our best to ensure the time you spend in our heart clinics/facilities is as comfortable as possible and to provide you with excellent personal and professional care, but there may be times when your expectations are not met. Please do highlight any concerns as soon as they arise to a member of staff, rather than waiting, so that we can try and resolve these in a timely fashion.

NHS Funded Care – Raising an issue or concern

If the NHS has funded your care at a RPH heart clinic/facility, RPH is responsible for the quality of this care. If you are unhappy about the care and treatment you have received, you may make a complaint to either ourselves as outlined below, or to your local Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) (see <https://www.nhs.uk/service-search/other-services/Clinical%20Commissioning%20Group/LocationSearch/1>) . We will work together to resolve your complaint. The Hospital can also provide the relevant address on request.

On your discharge from our heart clinic or healthcare facility

If you have concerns after your discharge from any of our heart clinics/facilities, please write to the local manager. The address details can be found on the local website and also our corporate website: www.regentsparkhealthcare.com

The Complaints Process

Any complaint that we receive is treated in confidence. We undertake to investigate all complaints courteously and sympathetically and to provide a response within recognised timelines.

What are the first steps?

Complaints should normally be made within 12 months of an incident or of the matter coming to your attention. This time limit can sometimes be extended as long as it is still possible to investigate your complaint.

All complaints are taken seriously and are handled openly and honestly in a bid to be fair to all concerned and to conclude matters to the satisfaction of all parties as soon as practically possible. All documentation will be forwarded to the hospital's manager handling your complaint.

How do I make a written complaint?

It is helpful to put all formal complaints in writing.

Your letter should include:

- Who or what has caused your concerns
- Where and when the events took place
- What action you have already taken, if any
- What outcome you want from your complaint.

The local heart clinic/facility Chief Executive Officer will acknowledge your complaint letter within three working days of receipt, unless a full reply can be sent within five working days of receiving it.

What are the Timeframes for Investigation?

You should be offered a discussion about the handling of your complaint, and if you accept, the discussion will cover the period within which a response to your complaint is likely to be sent.

There's no set timeframe, and this will depend on the nature of your complaint. If, in the end, the response is delayed for any reason, you should be kept informed. If you made a complaint but do not receive a response or decision for more than 6 months, you should be told the reason for the delay. Once your complaint has been investigated, you'll receive a written response.

The response should set out the findings and, where appropriate, provide apologies and information about what's being done as a result of your complaint. It should also include information about how the complaint has been handled and details of your right to take your complaint to the ombudsman.

The NHS Contract also requires us to provide you with details on how to contact your Local Healthwatch; your legal rights under the NHS Constitution, and on how you can access independent support to help make a complaint:

- You can access your local 'Healthwatch' who can provide information about making a complaint: see <https://www.healthwatch.co.uk/your-local-healthwatch/list> or call Healthwatch England on 03000 68 3000.
- You can contact Citizens advice by calling 0344 411 1444.
- You can also contact the Independent Complaints Advocacy Service (ICAS), run by POhWER, if you need help and support through the complaints process. POhWER can be contacted as follows:

The NHS Constitution sets out your rights as a patient, and explains the commitments the NHS has made to providing you with a high-quality service. Organisations providing NHS care must take account of the NHS Constitution when treating you, so you may find it helpful to refer to it if you are thinking about making a complaint to us.
