REGENT'S PARK SELECTED TO RECEIVE
NATIONAL AWARD FOR PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP OF THE YEAR

---

WILTSHIRE, United Kingdom, 20 September, 2018: Regent's Park Healthcare Ltd., an independent healthcare company specialising in the delivery of cardiac services, today announced that it has been selected as a finalist in the Public Private Partnership (PPP) of the Year category at the 2018 LaingBuisson Independent Healthcare Awards.

Entering their thirteenth year, the Independent Healthcare Awards which are sponsored by LaingBuisson (LB) are widely considered to be the most prestigious event in the healthcare sector calendar. The citation in the PPP award category reads: "For excellence in a strategic partnership between the public and independent sectors with a focus on outcomes, value for money and innovation."

The judging panel aims to highlight the range of achievements within the independent healthcare sector and to pay tribute to those individuals and teams who have demonstrated outstanding excellence. LB are a leading independent provider of market intelligence to the independent sector and considered to have the expertise to identify and honour the best performing care providers in an industry where the independent sector is taking an ever more important role.

Commenting on the nomination, Dr. Ohri, CEO of Regent's Park said: "It is a tremendous privilege to be nominated by LaingBuisson for these highly prestigious awards". He added: "I believe the nomination is an endorsement of our business development strategy that is committed to finding efficient, high quality, and smarter ways of delivering healthcare with our NHS partners".

Last year LB received over 350 nominations, with the winners on the night receiving their Awards in front of an audience of over 850 of their peers. The Awards will be hosted at the London Park Plaza Westminster Bridge Hotel in sight of the Houses of Parliament on 15th November 2018.

Notes to editors:

Regent's Park Healthcare (RPH) is the UK's leading managed cardiac services provider. RPH has been developing innovative, award-winning, service solutions in partnership with NHS hospital cardiac departments since 2002. The company owes its name to the London Business School in Regent's Park where it was first founded in a business incubator unit in 1999. The company is a highly specialist organisation with expertise in the development, financing and operation of cardiology and cardiovascular services. Sixteen years on, the company has built an integrated national platform which currently operates cardiology services across 42 NHS hospitals and which has delivered over 100,000 cardiology procedures. RPH also develops and operates private patient cardiac services in partnership with NHS hospitals having opened its first cardiology private patient unit (called the 'Cambridge Heart Clinic') in 2008. The Cambridge Heart Clinic is a partnership with Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust located at the world famous Addenbrooke's hospital. Following on from the success of the Cambridge venture, in 2017 it opened the 'Dorset Heart Clinic' in partnership with The Royal Bournemouth & Christchurch Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust. RPH will shortly announce the development of a third brand new cardiology centre in partnership with a major NHS cardiothoracic centre in the South of England.

RPH prides itself on its ability to deliver high quality, cost effective cardiac care, through excellent service, efficient operations management, well trained staff, and uncompromising professionalism. The RPH guiding philosophy is that every patient with heart disease should have access to healthcare of a world-class standard.
